The fleet fetched the coal shods but not exactly in the order of starting, as some of the canocists had sail enough for a jolly boat while others confined themselves to the pocket handkerchief sizes. The fleet coasted along as far as the Cosmopolitan, and after another halt there stood up for Kowleon Point, whence they stood across the harbour, and were lifted out at the starting point. Singularly enough no one complained of being wet, but it is libel to say that the bar at the Club was incapable of evercoming the thirst of the canoeists. Another expedition was organised yesterday and was very successful, although one party and his canno parted company several times, through carrying more sail than he could manage, and latterly he had to be hauled on board a Chinese boat. The canonists had better moderate their enthusiam in the matter of sail carrying, or something serious may happen. If it is possible for a good canonist and a first-class swimmer to be drowned in the Thames through want of assistance it is quite possible for one of our canceists to get into grave difficulties in Hongkong Harbour.

The latest intelligence from that port was to the effect thit some Korean desperadoes had arranged a well organised plot to make an attack on I believe the reason of Mr Quincey being land was passing from hand to hand, and the Japanese at Fusan, during the earl part of this month. Consequently the Japanese consul had taken steps to ascertan the truth of the matter, but the plot tom had so successfully kept their matters secret from the public, that nothing leading to discovery was arrived at. LUM SHUN TAE O. IP WAN SHAN. The Attorney General (the Hon. E. L. O'Malley), instructed by Messrs Brereton and Wotton, appeared for Lum Shun Tak and Mr Francis, instructed by Mesars Stephone and Holmes, represented Ip Wan

In this case there were cross suits. Lum Shun Tak sued Ip Wan Shan for the return Shan asked for a decree for the specific performance of a contract on the other.

The suit for the return of the deposit money was heard first. The Attorney General said the claim arose from a contract entered into between the plaintiff and the defendant for the sale and purchase of a portion of land in Jervois Street. The plaintiff and defendant are traders carrying on business in Queen's Road. By an agreement in writing bearing date the 15th September 1881, the defendant agreed to especially when taking into consideration | sell to the plaintiff three shops in Jervois Street, and three houses in Queen's Road which the plaintiff had agreed to purchase very serious affect, had not ample wanting for the sum of $45,000, the plaintiff depositing $3,000 with the defendant as bargain money; the contract to be concluded on the 4th November. The plaintiff had always been ready to complete the contract, but the defendant had hitherto refused and still refuses to complete. The plaintiff therefore prayed that the defendant be ordered to ropay the deposit together with interest at the rate of twelve per cent. from the time the completion of the sale became due. The Attorney General then read the contract in which it was stated that the defendant had already purchased the perty from the former vendors, Li Sing Po and Ho Wing Hing. He then said that on the 3rd November the plaintiff through his solicitors, Messrs Brereton and Wottom wrote to the defendant to the effect that he was ready to complete, provided the property was free from all encumbrances and leases, and that unless the defendant was able to hand over the property in that condition within fourteen days from that date, the plaintiff would consider the contract broken, and claim the return of the deposit money. For the purposes of this arrangement time was to be considered of the essence of the contract. At the time this letter was written it had been ascertained by the plaintiff that the property had not yet been assigned by the defendant No notice was taken of the application of the plaintiff by the defendant until the 16th November, when Messrs Stephens and Holmes, his solicitors, wrote to the plaintiff that their client had informed them that the property was clear of all encumbraneus, and that their client was ready plied on the following day that their client was ready to purchase at any time provided that he was satisfied that the incumbrances to which he had previously referred were removed from the title. On the following day they wrote to the same effect, and added that they, Messrs Brereton and Wotton, would call on Mesers Stephens and Holmes, on the following day, and Sin. > The Session has produced one measure BAR which is likely to prove of the highest domestic importance, and which, as the Times points out, may involve something very like a domestic revolution, the Married Women's Property Bill. The effect of this measure is to enable a married woman to acquire. hold, and dispose of real and personal property as her separate estate. Noither trustees nor settlements will be necessary. She will beable to enter into contracts on her own account; if she receives compensation for a milway accident, it will belong to herselfalone; and she will be liable to be sued for any breach of contract without responsibility being entailed upon her husband. If she carries on trade separately from her husband she can be made a bankrupt, and so far as that trade is successful she will enjoy a monopoly of its profits. On the other hand, existing settlements will not be interfered with, and a wife will not be competent to institute criminal proceedings against her husband so long as they live together. The chief effect of this measure is to destroy the presumption that everything which a women had at her marriage or which she afterwards obtained passes to her husband.

Lord Dufferin rejected the above propossis, and submitted another draft, the third clause of which attoulated that the Turks should not undertake any operation without previous agreement with the British commander, by whom the Turkish plans should be approved. #### THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY.

TENTH YEAR.

THIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of " Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses minds of students of the "Far East" and about which every intelligent person connocted with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, useful. The Review department receives apecial attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review; care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

"All our learned societies should sub scribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review."-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) "The China Review * * * * has an excellent table of contents." - Celestial Empire. "The Publicationalways contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers."—Odestial Empire.

"This number contains several articles of interest and value."-North-China Herald. "The present number of this periodical, * * * * opens with a review of the Foreign Trade of China during 1880. This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we hail the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to the notice of those who take an interest in few matters boyond mercantile pursuits."-North-China Revald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche. on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although Two Coolies, ... much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting." - North-Olling

Daily News. "A substantial and reliable Review which Three Coolies, all students of China and the Chinese would Two Coolies, ... do well to patronise."-Chrysanthemum. "The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than | Four Coolies, Parker's " Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."—H.K. Daily Press.

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the 2nd Class Cargo Boat of 600 Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. O. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zoal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predecessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance.

We have instituted us an experiment " VISITORS' COLUMN, which we trust will prove successful, and be found uso To it will be relegated from time to time such items of information, lists, tables and other intolligence as is conthose topics which are uppermost in the sidered likely to prove valuable to persons passing through the City, and in connection with we have opened a SELECT HOTEL AND BUSINESS DIRECTORY, applications for enrolment into which we are now ready to receive.
